Office of the District of Columbia Auditor Releases Fiscal Year 2012 Work Plan

Washington, DC – Today, the Office of the District of Columbia Auditor (ODCA) released their Fiscal Year 2012 Work Plan. The plan, which was distributed to the Council of the District of Columbia and District agency heads, provides a listing and description of the audits that the office will conduct from October 1, 2011 through September 30, 2012.

To improve the operations of the District government, provide the Council of the District of Columbia with insight into agency operations, and save tax dollars, ODCA conducts audits and recommends program improvements that result in cost savings and increased revenue. “The publication of the Work Plan is part of our effort to increase the transparency of the operations of the Office of the DC Auditor,” says Yolanda Branche, Acting DC Auditor.

The Work Plan can be found on ODCA’s website www.dcauditor.org. While visiting the website, all who are interested are encouraged to sign-up to receive email notifications when ODCA reports are released by simply clicking on “Receive Email Notifications” and submitting the requested contact information.
