

Office of the District of Columbia Auditor

For Immediate Release
January 20, 2012

Office of the District of Columbia Auditor Appoints Legal Counsel

Washington, D.C. – Today, the Office of the District of Columbia Auditor (ODCA) announced the appointment of Tia L. Clark as Legal Counsel. As a graduate of Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School and Harvard Law School, Ms. Clark brings over 17 years of experience in both the public and private sector to ODCA along with her strong commitment to government service.

Ms. Clark began her service with the District of Columbia in 2001 at the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia (OAG). At OAG, Ms. Clark served in several capacities including as a trial attorney in the civil litigation division and also as the attorney advisor for the Police and Firefighters' Retirement and Relief Board. Because of her years of experience at OAG, Ms. Clark is familiar with a wide variety of District laws and programs.

As part of Ms. Clark's legal duties and responsibilities at ODCA, she will serve as a liaison to Council of the District of Columbia as well as other agencies including the Office of Attorney General for the District of Columbia, the District of Columbia Office of the Inspector General, and the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia in order to advance common goals and resolve legal issues.

Please contact Ms. Clark at (202) 727-3600 with any legal concerns or issues regarding the work of ODCA.

#####